laboratorium lucernaiuris

The laboratorium lucernaiuris public lecture series is organised by the Institute for Research in the Fundamentals of Law – lucernaiuris of the University of Lucerne. The goal of the institute is to promote the development of new and innovative cross- and transdisciplinary approaches to the study of the foundational subjects of law and legal jurisprudence. The laboratorium lecture series offers an opportunity for intellectual exchange across disciplinary borders by inviting renowned scholars to report from their respective laboratories and present new insights into the alchemy of current research in the field.

We cordially invite you to attend the lectures in the series and look forward to meeting you.

Prof. Dr. Paolo Becchi und Prof. Dr. Vagias Karavas
